

GLAO AWARDS

AAO James E. Brophy Distinguished Service Award – (due to AAO March 30th)

The Distinguished Service Award was established by the Board of Directors of the American Association of Orthodontists in 1963, and was renamed the James E. Brophy AAO Distinguished Service Award by the House of Delegates in 1986.

The award is presented to those who, in the judgment of the Awards Committee, have made contributions to orthodontics in addition to other valuable and devoted services to the Association and to its membership.

The Awards Committee is composed of the five immediate past presidents of the Association.

ABO Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award – (Due to ABO February 1)

The Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award is awarded annually to an orthodontist(s) or some other person, who in the judgment of the award committee has made a notable contribution to the science and art of orthodontics. Annually, the American Board of Orthodontics will invite nominations for the Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award by letter to the constituent societies of the American Association of Orthodontics. Only nominations from the officers and directors of the American Board of Orthodontics and from the governing bodies of the constituent societies of the American Association of Orthodontics will be received and acted upon by the American Board of Orthodontics. Thereafter, the American Board of Orthodontics will select the award recipient and inform the American Association of Orthodontics of its selection. The award may be presented to more than one person, if special circumstances indicate the desirability of a joint award.

GLAO B. Holly Broadbent, Sr. Memorial Lecture - (due to GLAO March 1)

The Great Lakes Association of Orthodontists has decided to honor one of its greatest members by the establishment of a Memorial Lecture. The lecture is to be of outstanding merit and offered to individuals who have achieved acclaim in the art and science of orthodontics. Hopefully, the lecture will allow summation of the work performed by the individual in his lifetime.

Guidelines for the establishment of B. Holly Broadbent, Sr. Memorial Lecture are as follows:

- 1) It is to be a meritorious essay on original research related to the field of orthodontics. The lecture will be awarded to an individual who has contributed widely to the art and science of orthodontics.
- 2) The lecture will be presented at the annual session of the Great Lakes Association of Orthodontics and a suitable plaque be presented.
- 3) The award will be given at infrequent intervals. The invitation to give the lecture shall be extended by the award committee at least 12 months prior to the annual session at which the lecture will be presented.
- 4) The award committee shall consist of:
 - a. The delegate to the Research Council of the A.A.O.;
 - b. The President of the GLAO (chairman), and
 - c. The trustee of the GLAO
- 5) The lecture shall be previously unpublished and suitable for publication in the American Journal of Orthodontics. It must be an original article although based on the author's previously published works. A copy should be submitted to the award committee 60 days prior to the annual meeting at which it is to be presented.
- 6) A financial reward and travel expenses will be provided from a Seed fund established for the lecture, and funds allocated for speakers of the GLAO meeting at which the lecture is to be presented. Administration of the finances will be by the Award Committee mentioned above.
