O7-23 COMEJC Bylaws Amendment - Article XVII - Disciplinary and Membership Proceedings  RESOLVED, that Article XVII Disciplinary and Membership Proceedings, of the AAO Bylaws be amended as follows:  ARTICLE XVII — DISCIPLINARY AND MEMBERSHIP PROCEEDINGS  As described in article XVI, all members of this Association are governed by the Principles of Ethics and Code of Professional Conduct. Our members also must adhere to the disciplinary and membership proceedings as also described in detail in the AAO Principles of Ethics, Code of Professional Conduct and Advisory Opinions document.	Consent Adopt	2/3	Lisa Chandler to update policy.	N/A

TITLE	HOUSE ACTION	VOTE REQUIRED	ASSIGNMENT	REPORT DUE DATE	STATUS
A. GROUNDS FOR ACTION:	710 HOIL	REGUNED		DOL DATE
This Association, on its own volition or upon receipt of a written complaint from any other person, reserves the right to discipline any of its members (except honorary) for cause. Non-disciplinary action may include a non-reportable Letter of Concern sent to a member in the event that actions of the member demonstrate behavior of concern to the Council on Membership, Ethics and Judicial Concerns COMEJC but which fail to demonstrate clear and undeniable evidence of violation of these Principles of Ethics or Code of Professional Conduct. Disciplinary action may include a letter of concern, reprimand, suspension or expulsion from membership in the AAO. Violation of the AAO's Bylaws or Principles, Code and Opinions, or any state or provincial lawful rule of practice or any other conduct prejudicial to the interests of this Association, shall constitute sufficient cause for disciplinary action hereunder. This Association, on its own volition or upon appeal from an applicant for membership who has been denied membership by this Association, further reserves the right to terminate the membership of any member and affirm the denial of membership to such applicant.
Each Member and each Applicant hereby expressly waives the right to hold this Association, its delegates, trustees, officers, members and employees, or any of its constituent or component organizations responsible for any damage, pecuniary or otherwise, as a result of disciplinary or membership proceedings against or involving any member and or applicant.
This Association may, at its discretion, require complainants to provide a waiver of medical privacy rights they may have under any and all applicable laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA").
B. DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS:
Jurisdiction: This Association has jurisdiction to bring disciplinary proceedings against, and to conduct membership proceeding as to, a member, which shall be conducted by the Council on Membership, Ethics and Judicial Concerns ("COMEJC").

TITLE	HOUSE ACTION	VOTE REQUIRED	ASSIGNMENT	REPORT DUE DATE	STATUS
2. The AAO administrative staff will receive and review formally submitted complaints signed by an AAO member or non-member individual or individuals relating to alleged violations of parameters set forth in these Principles of Ethics, Code of Professional Conduct and Advisory Opinions. Such complaints should encompass all pertinent and available information related to the facts of the asserted violation including, but not necessarily limited to, a description of facts related to events or activities, copies of pertinent documents, communications, and when applicable, patient records (e.g., photographs, radiographs, etc.) if available. Such materials shall become the property of the AAO and held in confidence (with exceptions identified below) by the AAO and those designated by the AAO including the COMEJC to examine and process for potential evaluation and subsequent non-disciplinary or disciplinary proceedings or action.
a. Preliminary Rejection: Upon receipt and examination of complaints, the Association's executive staff following consultation with the Chair of the COMEJC may reject complaints that it deems to be clearly without merit, patently retaliatory, or fail to include evidence sufficient for a valid complaint.
3. Investigation: For those complaints which are not preliminarily rejected, the investigation of disciplinary or membership complaints and/or appeals of membership denials shall occur as follows:
a. The Chair of COMEJC shall select three of its members to comprise an "Investigating Committee" to investigate any disciplinary or membership complaints and/or appeals of membership denials. Committee members selected must be unbiased and without conflicts. At a minimum, they must not represent the Association's constituent organization, nor shall they be from the same general geographic area, as the member they are charged with investigating.

b. The Investigating Committee may conclude, in its sole discretion and	AOTION	ILLGUILLE		DOL DAIL based upon a preliminary review of any complaint or record of membership decision, that the complaint or record contains insufficient information on which to base an investigation, or is patently frivolous or inconsequential. In such case, the matter may be disposed of by written notice to the complainant and his or her respective constituency organization (in the case of active and retired members), as the case may be.
c. If the Investigating Committee concludes that a complaint or record constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, the Investigating Committee shall conduct a confidential investigation in order to determine whether disciplinary or membership action is warranted. Such an investigation in the case of disciplinary proceedings shall include contacting the accused member and providing a copy of the complaint to the member as well as the complainant, if necessary to gather all relevant facts. The investigation of whether any non-disciplinary or disciplinary response, including membership in this Association is warranted shall include contacting the applicant or existing member as the case may be, as well as the member's constituent organization (in the case of active and retired members, and obtaining all relevant facts. Any "whistle blower" complaint, however, submitted by a party who could potentially be subject to retaliation may be considered for further investigation while holding the complainant's identity in confidence by means of redaction of said name and any other identifying materials from the complaint only if preliminary evaluation by the Investigating Committee determines that a non-reportable letter of concern is, or may be likely as the appropriate disposition of said complaint. Should the Investigating Committee, as it moves through its disciplinary process, later determine that a reportable disciplinary action is instead likely, the subject member of the complaint shall be entitled to know the identity of the complainant to enable the accused member to respond specifically with knowledge of the origin of the complaint. AAO staff, in communication with the complainant, would determine if a willingness to reveal the whistle blower's identity is acceptable to permit any disciplinary process to proceed in such cases. If not, the complaint would be rejected. If the accused member refuses to cooperate or provide information, the Investigating Committee may not allow such refusal to influence its judgment concerning the merits of the complaint. Members of the Investigating Committee shall not, at any time, have any personal or "off the record" communications with the accused member, or anyone advocating for the accused. All communications with the accused member concerning the investigation shall be in writing, and shall only be transmitted through AAO executive staff and shall, when possible, be transmitted in such a way as to prove the sufficiency of the communication (e.g., receipted delivery). The Investigating Committee may, at its discretion, suspend its proceedings if it becomes aware that the accused member is involved in litigation or other official proceedings, such as a state dental board or provincial regulatory body investigation, on the same or substantially similar complaint.

,,,
d. Subject to Disciplinary Proceedings B.3.f, below, the Investigating Committee shall file its report and non-binding recommendations as to a proposed penalty with the Chairman of COMEJC within a reasonable time after notification of the complaint or membership issue.
and notification of the complaint of membership locae.
e. If the Investigating Committee determines that no disciplinary action is warranted or that membership should be maintained or granted, it shall notify the member, as the case may be, the member's constituent organization (in the case of active and retired members), the chairman of COMEJC, and Secretary-Treasurer of this Association. The notice to such member shall be in writing and sent via certified mail-return receipt requested.
f. Public Statement Assurance: In the case of the first disciplinary complaint against a member involving public statements, announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee has determined that the complaint constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, the Investigating Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to advise the member of its finding and obtain a written agreement from the member to cease the unethical activity and to waive any further right of appeal from, or challenge to, such finding and agreement. If the member enters into and complies with such an agreement, the Investigating Committee shall file its report as to such matter with the Chairman of COMEJC, and no disciplinary action shall be warranted in relation to the Public Statement, announcement of services or promotional activity that is the subject of such agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a subsequent complaint	ACTION	REQUIRED		DUEDATE announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee determines that the complaint constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, this section (Disciplinary Proceedings B.3.f) shall be inapplicable, and the provisions Disciplinary Proceedings B.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings shall apply.

4. If the Investigating Committee determines that disciplinary action is warranted or that membership should be terminated or denied, COMEJC shall follow the procedures set forth below:					ļ a. Notice: The member shall be notified in writing of the charges including a statement containing all of the actions about which have been complained, including corresponding provisions of this Code that are alleged to have been violated, and his/her right to a hearing before three members of the COMEJC selected by the chairman thereof who shall not be members of the Investigating Committee (the "Hearing Committee") and who have no bias or conflicts in the matter as previously defined. The accused member shall be given the names, states/provinces of members of the Hearing Committee, and shall have the right to challenge any member on the basis of bias or conflicts. In the event of such a challenge, the Chair of COMEJC, in consultation with AAO executive staff, may determine if a conflict does, in fact, exist. Such notification shall be sent by certified mail, with receipted delivery, to the member's address of record. In the event that a conflict or that a COMEJC member is ineligible to serve on the Investigating or Hearing Committees, the Chair shall appoint an alternative COMEJC representative to serve in his/her place.
In the event two alternate Council appointees are ineligible to serve, The Chair shall serve on the designated Committee. If the Chair is unable to serve, the AAO President shall appoint the Trustee Liaison to COMEJC or another AAO Trustee to serve on the Investigating Committee or Hearing Committee if the Trustee Liaison is ineligible. Such notification shall be sent by certified mail, with return receipt requested, to the member's address of record. The member shall be notified that he/she may request a hearing before the Hearing Committee in order to appear and may present evidence, and that he/she may be represented by legal counsel, if desired, at his or her expense.

The Hearing Committee may, at its discretion, suspend its proceedings if it becomes aware that the accused member is involved in litigation or other official proceedings, such as a state dental board or provincial governing body investigation, on the same or substantially similar complaint.
b. Hearing: Upon timely written request from the member, which must be given within thirty (30) days of the notice to the member of the right to a hearing, the member or applicant shall be entitled to a private hearing before the Hearing Committee at which time he/she shall be given the opportunity to present his/her response. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures adopted by this Association at a place and time selected by the Hearing Committee in its sole discretion, and the member shall be given reasonable advance notice of the date, time and place of the hearing. The members of the Hearing Committee shall elect from their number a Hearing Officer, who shall preside at the hearing and issue any appropriate procedural or evidentiary rulings, and summarize the results of the investigation and non-binding penalty recommendation at the hearing for the other members. Formal rules of evidence or civil procedure shall not be required. The Hearing Committee may consider any relevant material.  At the Association's discretion, hearings may be offered to be held via videoconference or teleconference.
Hearings should be limited to the facts in dispute, which have been entered into the "record" of the case by the accused and complainant.
c. In the event no timely written request for a hearing is received from the member, or if a hearing is requested but the respondent does not appear, and no extenuating circumstances have influenced such delay, the Hearing Committee shall render its decision without regard to said failure to appear influencing its judgment concerning the merits of the complaint.
d. Decision: Every disciplinary and membership decision of the Hearing Committee shall be in writing. Each decision shall specify the charges made against the member, the facts which substantiate any or all of the charges and if the member has been deemed exonerated or found in

			No decision shall become final while an appeal therefrom is pending or until the thirty (30) day period for filing notice of appeal has elapsed. Within thirty (30) days of the receipt of a notice of appeal, the President of this Association will name and determine their willingness to serve, three members to an Ad Hoc Appeals Panel and three alternates, no one of whom shall have been a member of the COMEJC from the time since the original complaint was received and disciplinary proceedings begun. The members of the Ad Hoc Appeals Panel shall be without bias or conflict, and their names, cities and states/provinces shall be made available to the accused member, who may challenge members of the panel on the basis of bias or conflict. In the event of such a challenge, the President of the Association, in consultation with the Association's executive staff, must determine if a conflict or bias exists. The Secretary Treasurer of this Association will notify the member of the names of the three principals via certified mail, return receipt requested. If the member shows good cause why any named principal is unacceptable, an alternate(s) will be selected by the President of the Association. This selection shall be final. The Panel shall notify the COMEJC and the member of the time and place of the hearing, such notice to be sent by certified mail, with return receipt requested, to the last known address of the parties to the appeal and mailed not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date set for the hearing.
			The Panel shall meet, either in person or via telephone conference, within a reasonable time from the date the appeal was filed. The member may have one representative appear, at his or her expense, before the Panel to make oral or written presentations and to respond to questions from the Panel. The Hearing Officer shall designate a representative to appear before the Panel to support the decision of the Hearing Committee and to respond to questions of the Panel. Either party may be represented by counsel; however, the proceedings shall be conducted on an informal basis.  The Panel shall be required to review the decision on appeal and determine whether the charges involving the member support the decision and/or warrant the penalty imposed and shall be based on any evidence

RESOLVED, that the Principles of Ethics, Code of Professional Conduct and Advisory Opinions of the AAO, Disciplinary Proceedings, pages 11 through 14, lines 423 through 573 be amended as follows:			policy.
DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS DISCIPLINARY AND MEMBERSHIP PROCEEDINGS
B. DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS:

<ol> <li>Jurisdiction: This Association has jurisdiction to bring disciplinary proceedings against, and to conduct membership proceeding as to, a member, which shall be conducted by the Council on Membership, Ethics and Judicial Concerns ("COMEJC").</li> <li>The AAO administrative staff will receive, and review, and preliminarily evaluate formally submitted written complaints signed by an AAO member or non-member individual or individuals relating to alleged violations of parameters set forth in these Principles of Ethics, Code of Professional Conduct and Advisory Opinions. Such complaints should encompass all pertinent and available information related to the facts of the asserted violation including, but not necessarily limited to, a description of facts related to events or activities, copies of pertinent documents, communications, and when applicable, patient records (e.g., photographs, radiographs, etc.) if available. Such materials shall become the property of the AAO and held in confidence (with exceptions identified below) by the AAO and those designated by the AAO including the COMEJC to examine and process for potential evaluation and subsequent non-disciplinary or disciplinary proceedings or action.</li> </ol> <ul> <li>a. Preliminary Rejection: Upon receipt and examination of complaints, the Association's executive staff, following consultation and agreement with the Chair of the COMEJC, may reject complaints that it deems to be clearly without merit, patently retaliatory, or fail to include evidence sufficient for a valid complaint as related to the AAO's Principles of Ethics and Code of Professional Conduct. In the event that COMEJC's Chair disagrees with staff recommendation to dismiss, the complaint shall advance toward investigation.</li> <li>3. Investigation: For those complaints which are not preliminarily rejected, the investigation of disciplinary or membership complaints and/or appeals of membership denials shall occur as follows:</li> </ul>

a. The Chair of COMEJC shall select three of its members to comprise an "Investigating Committee" to investigate any disciplinary or membership complaints and/or appeals of membership denials. Committee members selected must be unbiased and without conflicts. At a minimum, they must not represent the Association's constituent organization, nor shall they be from the same general geographic area, as the member they are charged with investigating.
b. The Investigating Committee may conclude, in its sole discretion and based upon a preliminary review of any complaint or record of membership decision, that the complaint or record contains insufficient information on which to base an investigation or is patently frivolous or inconsequential. In such case, the matter may be disposed of by written notice to the complainant as well as the subject member(s) identified in the complaint and his or her respective constituency organization (in the case of active and retired members), as the case may be.
c. If the Investigating Committee concludes that a complaint or record constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, the Investigating Committee shall conduct a confidential investigation in order to determine whether disciplinary or membership action is warranted. Such an investigation in the case of disciplinary proceedings shall include contacting the accused member and providing a copy of the complaint to the member as well as the complainant, if necessary to gather all relevant facts. The investigation of whether any non-disciplinary or disciplinary response, including membership in this Association is warranted shall include contacting the applicant or existing member as the case may be, as well as the member's constituent organization (in the case of active and retired members), and obtaining all relevant facts. Any "whistle blower" complaint, however, submitted by a party who could potentially be subject to retaliation may be considered for further investigation while holding the complainant's identity in confidence by means of redaction of said name and any other identifying materials from the complaint only if preliminary evaluation by the Investigating Committee determines that a non-reportable letter of concern is, or may be likely as the appropriate disposition of said complaint.

Should the Investigating Committee, as it moves through its disciplinary process, later determine that a reportable disciplinary action is instead likely, the subject member of the complaint shall be entitled to know the identity of the complainant to enable the accused member to respond specifically with knowledge of the origin of the complaint. AAO staff, in communication with the complainant, would determine if a willingness to reveal the whistle blower's identity is acceptable to permit any disciplinary process to proceed in such cases. If not, the complaint would be rejected. If the accused member refuses to cooperate or provide information, the Investigating Committee may not allow such refusal to influence its judgment concerning the merits of the complaint. Members of the Investigating Committee shall not, at any time, have any personal or "off the record" communications with the accused member, or anyone advocating for the accused. All communications with the accused member concerning the investigation shall be in writing, and shall only be transmitted through AAO executive staff and shall, when possible, be transmitted in such a way as to prove the sufficiency of the communication (e.g., receipted delivery). The Investigating Committee may, at its discretion, suspend its proceedings if it becomes aware that the accused member is involved in litigation or other official proceedings, such as a state dental board or provincial regulatory body investigation, on the same or substantially similar complaint.
d. Subject to Disciplinary Proceedings B.3.f, below, the Investigating Committee shall file its report and non-binding recommendations as to a proposed penalty with the Chair man of COMEJC within a reasonable time after notification of the complaint or membership issue.  e. If the Investigating Committee determines that no disciplinary action is warranted or that membership should	TITLE	HOUSE ACTION	VOTE REQUIRED	ASSIGNMENT	REPORT DUE DATE	STATUS case may be, the member's constituent organization (in the case of active and retired members), the chairmen of COMEJC, and Secretary-Treasurer of this Association. The notice to such member shall be in writing and sent via certified mail-return receipt requested.  f. Public Statement Assurance: In the case of the first disciplinary complaint against a member involving public statements, announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee has determined that the complaint constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, the Investigating Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to advise the member of its finding and obtain a written agreement from the member to cease the unethical activity and to waive any further right of appeal from, or challenge to, such finding and agreement. If the member enters into and complies with such an agreement, the Investigating Committee shall file its report as to such matter with the Chairman of COMEJC, and no disciplinary action shall be warranted in relation to the Public Statement, announcement of services or promotional activity that is the subject of such agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a subsequent complaint against the same member involving any Public Statements, announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee determines that the complaint constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, this section (Disciplinary Proceedings B.3.f) shall be inapplicable, and the provisions Disciplinary Proceedings B.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary Proceedings S.2.d and S.2.d and S.2.d and S.2.d and S.2	e. If the Investigating Committee determines that no disciplinary action is warranted or that membership should be maintained or granted, it shall notify the member, as the case may be, the member's constituent organization (in the case of active and retired members), the chairman of COMEJC, and Secretary-Treasurer of this Association. The notice to such member shall be in writing and sent via certified mail-return receipt requested.  f. Public Statement Assurance: In the case of the first disciplinary complaint against a member involving public statements, announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to advise the member of its finding and obtain a written agreement from the member to cease the unethical activity and to waive any further right of appeal from, or challenge to, such finding and agreement. If the member enters into and complies with such an agreement, the Investigating Committee shall file its report as to such matter with the Chairman of COMEJC, and no disciplinary action shall be warranted in relation to the Public Statement, announcement of services or promotional activity that is the subject of such agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a subsequent complaint against the same member involving any Public Statements, announcements of services and promotional activities where the Investigating Committee determines that the complaint constitutes a valid and actionable inquiry, this section (Disciplinary Proceedings B.3.f) shall be inapplicable, and the provisions Disciplinary Proceedings B.2.d and all other related provision of these Disciplinary	ACTION	REQUIRED		DUE DATE shall be reduced by appropriations, if any, to determine Unappropriated Excess Liquid Reserves.	ACTION	KEQUIKED		DOL DATE

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions will be used:
(1) Liquid Reserves: The lessor of the average of the previous 36 month end Liquid Reserves or the current month-end Liquid Reserves calculated as follows:
Cash and Investments at Month-End Market Value     Less: Restricted Cash and Investments at Month-End     Less: Total Liabilities at Month-End
(2) Operating Expenses: Total Expenditures per the annual independent auditor's report Less: Extraordinary Expenses per the independent auditor's report Less: Excess Reserve Spending approved by the House of Delegates Less: Expenditures Funded by Special Assessment Less: Annual Session Expenses per the independent auditor's report
When the lower of Actual Liquid Reserves at month-end immediately preceding the meeting of the House of Delegates or Average Liquid Reserves for the 12 month period immediately preceding each meeting of the House of Delegates exceeds Target Liquid Reserves by more than 2%, the Board of Trustees may recommend the House of Delegates approve a dues rebate of up to 50% of Excess Liquid Reserves. An approved dues rebate will be paid to AAO members as a credit against the upcoming year's dues on a pro-rate basis in accordance with each member's current membership classification. If payment by credit is not possible, the AAO will pay the rebate in the form of a check issued to the member.
