AAO Lifetime Achievement Award in Orthodontic Research – (Due to AAO March 31)

This annual award is intended to recognize those individuals who have made significant contributions to the science related to the specialty of orthodontics over the course of their lifetime.

The criteria for consideration include the following:

1. Nominee has made significant contributions to the science related to the specialty of orthodontics through research.
2. Nominee has made significant contributions of original, outstanding, or innovative discoveries in orthodontic research across his or her lifetime.
3. Nominee has established a legacy of research and discovery that is inspiring to members of the academic community.
4. Nominee has produced information that is useful, or potentially useful, in advancing the clinical practice of orthodontics.
5. Nominee does not have to be an orthodontist.
6. AAO members may nominate individuals from the United States or any other country.
7. Nominations may also be solicited by the Editor-in-Chief of the AJO-DO from editors of other orthodontic journals published throughout the world.
8. At the time of selection of the awardee by the AAO, nominees must be living; deceased nominees will not be considered.

The AAO Board of Trustees will consider these nominations and determine the award recipient on an annual basis. Award winners will be invited to make a presentation at the following year's AAO Annual Session during the Doctors' program. The award will be presented at the beginning of the lecture, and the recipient of the next year's award will be announced at the conclusion of the lecture.

ABO Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award – (Due to ABO January 15)

The Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award is awarded annually to an orthodontist(s) or some other person, who in the judgment of the award committee has made a notable contribution to the science and art of orthodontics. Annually, the American Board of Orthodontics will invite nominations for the Albert H. Ketcham Memorial Award by letter to the constituent societies of the American Association of Orthodontics. Only nominations from the officers and directors of the American Board of Orthodontics and from the governing bodies of the constituent societies of the American Association of Orthodontics will be received and acted upon by the American Board of Orthodontics. Thereafter, the American Board of Orthodontics will select the award recipient and inform the American Association of Orthodontics of its selection. The award may be presented to more than one person, if special circumstances indicate the desirability of a joint award.

ADA Norton M. Ross Award for Excellence in Clinical Research – (Due to AAO by February 1)

This award was established to recognize investigators whose clinical research has had a meaningful impact on some aspect of clinical dentistry. This award recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions in clinical investigations that have advanced the diagnosis, treatment and/or prevention of craniofacial-oral-dental diseases, as well as outstanding research endeavors in other areas. Previous award winners represent a diversity of disciplines, including dental materials, oral medicine, oral pathology, orofacial pain and periodontics. The award is sponsored by the ADA and honors the memory of Dr. Norton M. Ross, a dentist and pharmacologist who contributed significantly to the fields of oral medicine and dental clinical research. The award recipient will receive a $5,000 honorarium and a plaque.

Concise letters of nomination describing the nominee's accomplishments in the context of the award's objectives, along with the nominee's curriculum vitae and a list of publications should be submitted. The letter should be explicit in describing the impact of the nominee's research in clinical dentistry. Selection is based upon the scope of the nominee's research with special emphasis on its impact on clinical dentistry and on publications in refereed journals.

GLAO B. Holly Broadbent, Sr. Memorial Lecture - (due to GLAO March 1)

The GLAO B. Holly Broadbent, Sr. Memorial Lecture Award was established to honor one of its greatest members. The lecture is to be of outstanding merit and offered to individuals who have achieved acclaim in the art and science of orthodontics. Ideally, the lecture will allow summation of the work performed by the individual in his lifetime.

Guidelines for the establishment of B. Holly Broadbent, Sr. Memorial Lecture (09/15):

- It is to be a meritorious essay on original research related to the field of orthodontics. The lecture will be awarded to an individual who has contributed widely to the art and science of orthodontics.
- The lecture will be presented at the GLAO annual session and a suitable plaque be presented.
- The award will be given at infrequent intervals. The invitation to give the lecture shall be extended by the award committee at least 12 months prior to the annual session at which the lecture will be presented.
- The lecture shall be previously unpublished and suitable for publication in the American Journal of Orthodontics. It must be an original article although based on the author's previously published works. A copy should be submitted to the award committee 60 days prior to the annual meeting at which it is to be presented.
- A financial reward and travel expenses will be provided from funds allocated for speakers of the GLAO meeting at which the lecture is to be presented.
