ORTHODONTIC RESIDENT SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Eligibility and Requirements

To be eligible, resident applicants from the GLAO programs need to send an application, with image and essay, to TP Orthodontics, Inc. The essay topic will be on humanitarian / volunteer efforts made by the resident during their years of attendance at their orthodontic residency program. Scholarship applications are due by February 15th.

Essays will be reviewed for these specific criteria:

- Humanitarian / volunteer efforts
- Recognized good deed efforts

The scholarships are designated for residents that are attending the orthodontics programs in the Great Lakes Association of Orthodontics (GLAO).

- Indiana University (Lindsey's alma mater)
- University of Michigan
- University of Detroit Mercy
- Ohio State University
- Case Western Reserve University
- University of Pittsburgh
- Seton Hill University
- University of Toronto
- University of Western Ontario

Application and Submission Process

Scholarship applications, including image and essay, are due by February 15th of each year. Late applications will not be accepted.

Please email Mimi.Gadsden@tportho.com for applications of the scholarship award.

An image of the graduating resident and essay should be sent with the application to TP Orthodontics, Inc. Submissions may be made electronically to Mimi.Gadsden@tportho.com or physical copies can be sent to TP Orthodontics, Inc., 100 Center Plaza, La Porte, IN 46350 — Attn: Mimi Gadsden. Items provided for submission will not be returned to the graduating resident.

Upon selection of the winner(s), an announcement will be made in mid-April before the Annual AAO Meeting via email or phone to applicants.

For questions about the scholarship award or the submission process, please contact Mimi.Gadsden@tportho.com.

Restrictions

There are no restrictions on how the scholarship monies are used but it should be clear to the recipients that it is preferred that it would be for educational purposes and used to pay down their debt. However, it is acknowledged that the recipient could need the monies for everyday living expenses including rent, automobile maintenance (transportation) and so forth.
