

Protect Your Patients with Shock Doctor – An AAO Endorsed Partner

April marks National Facial Protection Month, an important time to remind athletes, parents, and coaches about the need for proper safety gear—especially for those in orthodontic treatment. As orthodontists, ensuring that patients protect their smiles during sports is a key part of treatment. That’s why the AAO is proud to have Shock Doctor as an AAO Endorsed Partner, offering mouthguards designed specifically for orthodontic patients.

The AAO Endorsed Partner Program connects members with companies that meet rigorous quality and reliability standards. Shock Doctor, known as the maker of The #1 Mouthguard in the World®, has demonstrated this commitment through its innovative Braces mouthguards, which offer comfort, best-in-class sports protection, and a secure fit for orthodontic patients.

Shock Doctor is offering AAO members an exclusive 20% discount on Braces mouthguards, which can also be combined with Mari’s List discounts. This limited-time offer allows practices to provide high-quality protection for patients who play sports, reinforcing the importance of facial safety throughout their orthodontic journey.

This special offer is available until July 31, 2025. To take advantage of the discount, call (866) 253-1311 or fill out the form below. Encouraging proper facial protection helps patients stay on track with their treatment while enjoying the activities they love. National Facial Protection Month is the perfect time to start the conversation!
