

Your AAO Membership Is Your Ticket to Saving Time and Money

Being an American Association of Orthodontists (AAO) member has many benefits, but did you know AAO members can access discounted pricing from companies vetted by your colleagues? The work AAO does on your behalf to vet these companies and negotiate price discounts can save you and your staff countless hours of time and increase your bottom line.

Why Choose AAO-Endorsed Partners?

Quality and Value: The AAO meticulously vets all endorsed partners, ensuring they meet high standards for product quality and customer service. You can be confident you're getting the best possible value for your investment.

Exclusive Discounts: AAO members receive exclusive discounts on products and services offered by endorsed partners. These discounts can translate to significant savings for your practice.

Streamlined Selection: With a curated list of endorsed partners, you save time and effort researching vendors. The AAO has done the legwork for you, so you can be confident you're choosing a reputable provider.
